

The proposed new fax regulations of the FCC are extremely onerous to associations. Since our association members have join our association and which to receive information from us on activities and issues of the association, requiring this extra step of provide written consent for fax communications is redundant and unnecessary. Please recognize the unique position of associations and their members by exempting associations and other similar non-profit organizations from this rule. Thank you in advance for your consideration.